

113 WORCESTER ROAD

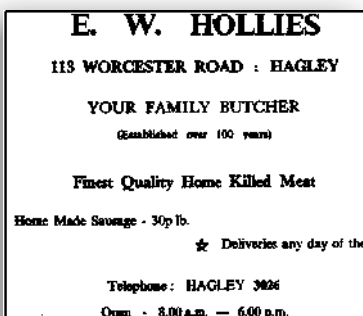

This shop has always been a butcher's starting with Prowse and Humphreys before 1930. They were followed by Lewis Wright who was here during WW2 and was still advertising in 1966. For many years the rear of the building was a slaughterhouse.

1966 Advert.

By 1974 the business belonged to Eric Hollies and later to Ted Collins.

Michael Connop, John Beave,
Cyril Johnson.

It has been known as
David Beasley since 1987.

Richard Smith ,
Michael Connop.

Michael Connop who has worked here for 30 years.

David Beasley.

David Beasley retired at the end of 2006.
The business was taken over by Michael Connop

The business closed down March 2015.
After a complete refit opened 2015 as
NEW DELHI

