

119 & 117 WORCESTER ROAD

119 was a grocery and confectionery store originally known as Wolf's but later changed to Aston & Wolf.

119 (The shop with the blind).

117 was probably Ann's Pantry noted for its cakes and exciting in-

It became George Mason's in 1958 and was demolished in 1965 when the present shop was built.

Margaret Hargest was the manager until 1971 followed by Mr Worrall.

Take it easy

GEORGE MASONS

now offer you

SELF SERVICE

WITH FREE DELIVERY

17/119, WORCESTER ROAD, WEST HAGLEY

YOU WILL FIND A WONDERFUL CHOICE OF FOODS AT THIS STORE

AT REALLY COMPETITIVE PRICES

By Shopping at

GEORGE MASONS

YOU WILL SAVE SEVERAL SHILLINGS IN THE & . .

Bargain Offer
for two weeks

A PLASTIC BUCKET
(Value 2/11) FREE

To customers spending 30/- or more
(EXCLUDING CIGARETTES & TOBACCO)

almost everybody goes to

GEORGE MASONS

Because there is no better value anywhere

SPECIAL OFFER

OVEN READY (3 lb 6oz)

CHICKEN

13/6 save 3/9 9/9

CALL IN THIS WEEK

117/119, WORCESTER ROAD, WEST HAGLEY

It later became International until 1987 when Mr Lane took over and changed it to Spar

